CONSTITUTION

- of -

The Kent Archaeological Society

---

Date of constitution (last amended):

1. Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation (the CIO) is the Kent Archaeological Society.

2. National location of principal office

The CIO must have a principal office in England or Wales. The principal office of the CIO is in England.

3. Objects

The objects of the CIO are:

3.1 To advance the education of the public in the subject of the Ancient County of Kent by:

3.1.1 undertaking, promotion and publication of archaeological investigations and documentary historical research;

3.1.2 encouraging a wider awareness of the richness of the history of the Ancient County of Kent among members of the general public and facilitating wherever possible their involvement in its study.

3.2 To further such other exclusively charitable purposes for the public benefit according to the law of England and Wales as the Board of Trustees shall in its absolute discretion decide.

4. Powers

The CIO has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the CIO's powers include power to:

4.1 borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;

4.2 buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

4.3 sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the CIO. In exercising this power, the CIO must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011;

4.4 employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the CIO. The CIO may not employ a charity trustee and may remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of that clause;

4.5 deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the CIO to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

5. Application of income and property

5.1 The income and property of the CIO must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

5.1.1 A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the CIO or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the CIO.

5.1.2 A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the CIO's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

5.2 None of the income or property of the CIO may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the CIO. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:

5.2.1 a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO;

5.2.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the CIO.

5.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by clause 6.

5.4 None of the archaeological artefacts, historical books, documents, photographs, paintings or other muniments owned by the CIO may be sold or otherwise disposed of without the passing of a resolution by the members at a general meeting.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

6.1 General provisions

6.1.1 No charity trustee or connected person may:

(a) buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

(b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;

(c) receive any remuneration or any other financial benefit from the CIO; unless the payment or benefit is permitted by clause 6.2, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (the Commission) has been obtained. In this clause, a financial benefit means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

6.1.2 No charity trustee or connected person may be employed by the CIO.

6.2 Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- 6.2.1 A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary of the CIO provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- 6.2.2 A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 6.2.3 Subject to sub-clause 6.3 a charity trustee or connected person may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.
- 6.2.4 A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- 6.2.5 A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- 6.2.6 A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.

6.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The CIO and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 6.2.3 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- 6.3.1 the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the CIO and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (the supplier);
- 6.3.2 the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
- 6.3.3 the other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the CIO to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;
- 6.3.4 the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the CIO;

- 6.3.5 the supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting;
- 6.3.6 the reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book;
- 6.3.7 a majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.
- 6.4 In sub-clause 6.2 and sub-clause 6.3:
  - 6.4.1 the CIO includes any company in which the CIO:
    - (a) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
    - (b) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
    - (c) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
  - 6.4.2 connected person includes any person within the definition set out in clause 31 (Interpretation).
- 7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty
  - 7.1 A charity trustee must:
    - 7.1.1 declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the CIO or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the CIO which has not previously been declared; and
    - 7.1.2 absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).
  - 7.2 Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with sub-clause 7.1 must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.
- 8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up
  - 8.1 If the CIO is wound up, each member of the CIO is liable to contribute to the assets of the CIO such amount (but not more than £1.00) as may be required for payment of the debts and liabilities of the CIO contracted before that person or organisation ceases to be a member, for payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for adjustment of the rights of the contributing members among themselves.
  - 8.2 In sub-clause 8.1 member includes any person or organisation that was a member of the CIO within 12 months before the commencement of the winding up.
  - 8.3 But subject to that, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, and accordingly have no personal responsibility for the settlement of its debts and liabilities beyond the amount that they are liable to contribute.

9. Membership of the CIO

- (e) the Board of Trustees decides that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

9.4.2 Before the Board of Trustees takes any decision to remove someone from membership of the CIO it must:

- (a) inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
- (b) give the member at least 21 clear days notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;
- (c) at a duly constituted meeting of the Board of Trustees, consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;

The CIO may require members to pay reasonable membership fees to the CIO.

9.6 Affiliated societies

9.6.2 The CIO may require affiliated societies to pay reasonable fees to the CIO.

9.6.3 An affiliated society may vote at a general meeting in accordance with sub-clause 11.11.

- 9.6.4 The CIO may allow the individual members of any affiliated society to have the same rights as members of the CIO other than the right to vote at general meetings.

  - 9.8.2 Institutional subscribers will not be allowed to vote at general meetings.
  - 9.8.3 The CIO may determine all other rights of the institutional subscribers.
  - 9.8.4 The subscription will come to an end by the relevant party giving written notice to the other party.
- 10. Members' decisions
  - 10.1 General provisions
    - 10.1.1 Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause 10.4, decisions of the members of the CIO may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause 10.2 or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause 10.3.

10.3 Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

- 10.3.1 Subject to sub-clause 10.4, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:

- 10.3.6 Sub-clause 10.3.1, sub-clause 10.3.2 and sub-clause 10.3.3 apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

11. General meetings of members

11.1 Types of general meeting

- 11.1.1 There must be an annual general meeting (AGM) of the members of the CIO. The first AGM must be held on the third Saturday in May. Whenever practicable subsequent AGMs should be held on the third Saturday in May each year in Maidstone or at such other time and place as the Board of Trustees determines. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause 13.
- 11.1.2 Other general meetings of the members of the CIO may be held at any time.

All general meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

11.2 Calling general meetings

- 11.2.1 The Board of Trustees:
  - (a) must call the annual general meeting of the members of the CIO in accordance with sub-clause 11.1, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
  - (b) may call any other general meeting of the members at any time.
- 11.2.2 The Board of Trustees must, within 56 days, call a general meeting of the members of the CIO if they receive a request to do so from the general secretary.

  - (a) they receive a request to do so from at least 50 members of the CIO; and
  - (b) the request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the member(s) making the request.
- 11.2.4 If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the members of the CIO for more than 12 months, then sub-clause 11.2.3(a) shall have effect as if 25 were substituted for 50.
- 11.2.5 Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- 11.2.6 A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- 11.2.7 Any general meeting called by the Board of Trustees at the request of the members of the CIO must be held within 56 days from the date on which it is called.

- 11.2.8 If the Board of Trustees fails to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its members, then the members who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
- 11.2.9 A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 91 days after the date when the members first requested the meeting.
- 11.2.10 The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the Board of Trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

11.3 Notice of general meetings

- 11.3.1 The Board of Trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the CIO, must give at least 28 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the members.
- 11.3.2 If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause 11.3.1 have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- 11.3.3 The notice of any general meeting must:
  - (a) state the time and date of the meeting;
  - (b) give the address at which the meeting is to take place;
  - (c) give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and

  - (e) include, with the notice for the AGM, the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustee, or where allowed under clause 23 (electronic communication and information systems), details of where the information may be found on the CIO's website.
- 11.3.4 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.

The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.

11.4 Chairing of general meetings

The Chair will preside as chair of the general meeting if present and willing to act. Subject to that, the members of the CIO who are present at a general meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.

11.5 Quorum at general meetings

11.5.1 No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the CIO unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts (including, for the avoidance of doubt, by electronic means and/or Remote Attendance).

11.5.2 Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be 30 members. An affiliated association represented by a person present at the meeting in accordance with sub-clause 11.11, is counted as being present in person.

11.5.3 If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the members and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.

11.5.4 If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the CIO's members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.

11.5.5 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.

11.5.6 If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.

11.6 Participation in general meetings by electronic means

11.6.1 A general meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the Board of Trustees in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.

11.6.2 Any member participating at a meeting by suitable electronic means agreed by the Board of Trustees in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants shall qualify as being present at the meeting.

11.6.3 Meetings held by electronic means must comply with rules for meetings, including chairing and the taking of minutes.

11.7 Hybrid Meetings

11.7.1 A Hybrid Meeting is a general meeting where the Board of Trustees has made arrangements to enable those attending the meeting to exercise their rights to speak and/or vote at the meeting either by physical attendance at the place specified in the notice of the meeting (the Primary Location) or by Remote Attendance.

11.7.2 In accordance with legal requirements, the Board of Trustees may (but shall be under no obligation to) make such arrangements for Remote Attendance at a Hybrid Meeting as they may decide. The entitlement of any person to attend a general meeting by Remote Attendance shall be subject to such arrangements.

11.7.3 In the case of a Hybrid Meeting:

- (a) the provisions of this constitution shall be treated as modified to permit such arrangements and in particular:
  - (i) a member attending a general meeting by Remote Attendance shall be treated as being present and/or present in person at the meeting for the purposes of this constitution, including without limitation the provisions of this constitution relating to the quorum for the meeting and rights to vote at the meeting, unless this constitution expressly provides to the contrary; and
  - (ii) references in this constitution to the place of a general meeting shall be treated as references to the Primary Location;
- (b) the Board of Trustees must ensure that the notice of a Hybrid Meeting includes:
  - (i) details of the arrangements for Remote Attendance and any restrictions on Remote Attendance; and
  - (ii) details of the Primary Location.
- (c) the Board of Trustees may decide:
  - (i) how those attending by Remote Attendance may communicate with the meeting for example by communicating with the chair in writing using an electronic platform; and
  - (ii) how those attending by Remote Attendance may vote;
- (d) subject to the General Regulations, the arrangements for Remote Attendance may be changed or withdrawn in advance of the meeting by the Board of Trustees, who must give the members as much notice as practicable of the change;
- (e) in the event of technical failure or other technical issues during the meeting (including, for example, difficulties in establishing whether the meeting is quorate) the chair of the meeting may adjust or withdraw the arrangements for Remote Attendance and/or adjourn the meeting if in his or her view this is necessary or expedient for the efficient conduct of the meeting;
- (f) under no circumstances shall the inability of one or more members (being entitled to do so) to access, or continue to access, the technology being used for Remote Attendance at the meeting (despite adequate technology being made available by the CIO) affect the validity of the meeting or any business conducted at the meeting, provided a quorum is present at the meeting.

11.8 Voting at general meetings

- 11.8.1 Any decision other than one falling within sub-clause 10.4 (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes). Every member has one vote unless otherwise provided in the rights of a particular class of membership under this constitution.
- 11.8.2 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the members present in person or by proxy at the meeting.
- 11.8.3 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for the poll.
- 11.8.4 A poll may be taken:
  - (a) at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
  - (b) at some other time and place specified by the chair; or

- 11.8.7 The members may appoint an entity independent of the CIO to conduct the vote at a general meeting including conducting the postal/email ballot and the counting of the votes (including proxy and postal votes).

11.9 Proxy voting

- 11.9.1 Any member of the CIO may appoint another person as a proxy to exercise all or any of that member's rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the CIO. Proxies must be appointed by a notice in writing (a proxy notice) which:

- 11.9.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
  - (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
  - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 11.9.5 A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the CIO by or on behalf of that member.
- 11.9.6 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the CIO a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the member by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 11.9.7 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 11.9.8 If a proxy notice is not signed or authenticated by the member appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person who signed or authenticated it on that member's behalf had authority to do so.

11.10 Postal Voting

- 11.10.1 The CIO may, if the Board of Trustees so decides, allow the members to vote by post or electronic mail (email) to elect charity trustees or to make a decision on any matter that is being decided at a general meeting of the members.
- 11.10.2 The members must appoint:
