

<http://kentarchaeology.org.uk/research/archaeologia-cantiana/>

Kent Archaeological Society is a registered charity number 223382

© 2017 Kent Archaeological Society

Published by the Kent Archaeological Society.

Demy 8vo, with Plates, price 2s., in printed wrapper.

Foundations of the Saxon Cathedral Church at Rochester.

By THE REV. GREVILLE M. LIVETT,
MINOR CANON AND PRECENTOR.

Demy Octavo, 28 pages interleaved, price 3s., in printed wrapper.

Kentish Administration Grants, A.D. 1559-1603.

EPITOMIZED BY LELAND L. DUNCAN.

Demy Octavo, 115 pp., cloth gilt, 4s., with 21 Illustrations.

Church Plate in Kent.

PART I.

CHRONOLOGICAL LIST OF OLD PLATE (A.D. 1485-1760)

With INTRODUCTION.

By THE REV. CANON SCOTT ROBERTSON.

Demy Octavo, cloth, 7s. 6d.; Large Paper Copies, 12s. 6d.; profusely Illustrated.

The Architectural History of the Conventual Buildings OF THE Monastery of Christ Church in Canterbury.

By THE LATE PROFESSOR ROBERT WILLIS, M.A., F.R.S.

Royal Quarto, half-calf gilt, £2 2s.; with Twenty-five Illustrations.

The Crypt of Canterbury Cathedral:

ITS ARCHITECTURE, ITS HISTORY, AND ITS FRESCOS.

By CANON W. A. SCOTT ROBERTSON, M.A.

THE ANTIQUARY for May, 1881, p. 224.

"Canon Scott Robertson has produced a most valuable history of the crypt in all its details, which is fully illustrated with plates of the carved capitals of columns, and of the frescoes. . . . This book . . . is one which must be consulted by all interested in ecclesiastical architecture."

LONDON: MITCHELL AND HUGHES, 140 WARDOUR STREET, W.